From the desk of the King

PROCLAMATION REGARDING

Ambassador of Special Needs & Disabilities

I, King Edmund Keli'i Paki-Silva Jr. make the following Declaration:

Constitutional Authority

- ❖ Considering the Royal Decree of November 22, 2002, That His Royal Majesty accepted the Royal Crown of the Kingdom of Hawai'i and that this decree was sealed by the original member's ancestors of the House of Nobles giving His Royal Majesty Absolute Power and Authority over the entire archipelago of the Hawaiian Islands and its People.
- ❖ Considering the Royal Proclamation that on November 23, 2002 the Kingdom is restored and that on June 21, 2003 a Declaration of Independence proclaiming the sovereignty of the independent Kingdom of Hawai'i was promulgated and signed into law.
- ❖ Considering the Constitution of the Kingdom of Hawai'i, which by its ratification the restoration of the Kingdom of Hawai'i is Forever Sealed Proclaiming that the Kingdom is a Constitutional Monarchical Government. Done this day of October 22, 2003

Apology Bill. (U.S. Public Law 103-150 – 107 Stat. 1510) admits the invasion, overthrow, occupation, and annexation of 1893 violated diplomatic treaties, international law, Laws of Nations, and the United States Constitution. Under international law the World Court ruled the only appropriate remedy is restitution. That fact gives absolute right and power to restore independence. The U.S. Congress has no power, jurisdiction or authority to stop the restoration of the Kingdom. The United Nations Charter states: An autonomous independent sovereign nation-state contemplated under Article 1 of the Montevideo Convention on Rights and Duties of States requiring the state as a person of international law possessing the four qualifications of (a) a permanent population, (b) a defined territory, (c) government; and (d) capacity to enter into relations with the other states. The Kingdom of Hawai'i meets ALL LEGAL REQUIREMENTS - ALI'I NUI MŌ'I, KING EDMUND K. PAKI-SILVA, JR.

Ancestral Royal Genealogy

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 1 of the Kingdom of Hawai'i Constitution of 2003: The highest position in the Monarchy is Edmund Keli'i Silva, Jr., hereafter referred to as Ali'i Nui Mō'i (Sovereign King), and whose Sacred Royal Name is:

Naliko lauokalani Paki – Ka-'i-'omaka-ola-hou-Kaluaokalani-ka-'i-mano'anu'unu'uka-lama-kea-i-ho'oku'ke'aupuni-o-Hawai'i

This sacred name is interpreted as The Supreme One; Source of the rebirth of Kaluaokalani; the Supreme One who conveys the reverberations of the white light that reestablishes the Kingdom of Hawai'i. Kaluaokalani is translated as The Second Heaven. It is the name of great strength used long ago in Hawai'i of the Pacific that is being reinvigorated in modern times. The sacred realm of the Highest Heaven is the home of the White Light that is the Source that provides for the restoration of the Kingdom of Hawai'i. The Kingdom of Hawai'i is the Kingdom of God. Hawai'i is the breath, the spirit of Most High God.

The King's heritage has been passed to him by his own (Iwi Kupunas) ancestors, who trace their Royal Genealogy back to 317 A.D. Each brought to him their own knowledge, experience and wisdom with an understanding of the responsibilities inherent in leading a Nation. This Nation shall include not only a uniting of just the Iwi Kanakas, Native Hawaiians by blood, but all the races and personalities of those born on the `Aina (land), as well as those desiring to be citizens of the Kingdom and considered worthy as citizens by the Ali'i Nui Mō'i.

Per ancient protocol in selecting a King, descendants of the original members of the House of Nobles (as established by King Kamehameha III), selected King Keli'i to reign as Ali'i Nui Mō'i, High Chief and King of and for the Kingdom of Hawai'i. His royal genealogy traces back to a Long Line of Kings and Queens from both his mother's and father's side in a direct hereditary line of successions to King Kamehameha-Nui `Ai Lu `au of Mau`i, as having the oldest and highest-ranking bloodline of Hawaiian Royalty ordained by Akua (God). His Royal Lineage exhibits an impeccable chain of custody and is in the original record of the Royal Courts and last changed in the Royal Court in 1836. Queen Emma prophesied that a sacred child would come forward who would restore the Kingdom of Hawai'i. It was determined by the Royal Spiritual Council that Edmund Keli'i Paki-Silva Jr. is that child.

Therefore, the Crown is permanently confirmed to His Majesty.

Article 2 Section 4 - The Aupuni (Government) will consist of a Cabinet of various Royal Ministries to manage the departments of the Aupuni (Government). as appointed by the Ali'i Nui Mō'i (Sovereign King). Ministers are commissioned and appointed by Ali'i Nui Mō'i (Sovereign King). Their tenure is indefinite. They must be of good moral and civil conduct, have sufficient merits, and have rendered service to their community. Ali'i Nui Mō'i (King) has the power to replace any and all Ministers.

Royal Announcement

That on this day of our Lord July 13, 2021

I, Ali'i Nui Mō'i Edmund K. Paki- Silva, Jr., have appointed:

I, Edmund K Silva II, am the Ali'i Nui Mōi (Sovereign King) of The Kingdom of Hawai'i, do appoint Miss Melissa Cox into the Office of Ambassador of Special Needs and Disabilities, under the supervision of the Minister of Foreign Affairs. She shall at all times exercise the power of authority with the highest degree of honor and integrity.

An Ambassador represents the Kingdom of Hawai'i in their respective domain and carries out our mission therein. Ambassador Cox is endowed with the power and authority to appoint deputies under her to serve the entire archipelago of the Kingdom of Hawai'i.

Main Duties and Functions of the Office

The Ambassador— or Chief of Mission, heads the mission's team of Kingdom of Hawai'i personnel. Responsibilities of Chiefs of Mission at post also include:

- Creating policy from evidence-based best-practices in respective domain, promoting inclusion for all;
- Speaking with one voice to others on Kingdom policy—and ensuring mission staff do likewise—while providing to the King via the Minister of Foreign Affairs (and when appropriate to the Minister of Internal Affairs) expert guidance and frank counsel;
- Cooperating with other Kingdom ministries so that policy is advanced and implemented to the extent possible;
- ensuring that no subject with a disability or special needs is excluded from Kingdom events;
- plan and organize special activities, projects and international events for subjects;
- Carefully using mission resources through regular reviews of programs, personnel, and funding levels;
- Serving Subjects with professional excellence, the highest standards of ethical conduct, and diplomatic discretion.

Function Defined

Assignment

The Kingdom of Hawai'i is at a pivotal point in the history of the country. The past is soon to be behind us and a future of our making is at hand.

Under the aegis of Foreign Affairs, the role of Ambassador bears a great responsibility to bring the nation out of illegal occupation and to provide the necessary infrastructure to restore and restore the Kingdom's relations with other nations.

In addition, the world is in great disarray; it is critical that the Kingdom lead the way in ridding the world of corruption that is choking freedom everywhere and in every way. This makes Ambassadors vital in offering the Kingdom and its ancient wisdom as a guiding light in overcoming evil. The Peace Center, the practice of Ho'oponopono, a new, fair and effective legal system are our legacy to the world. These are critical areas of focus for the Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs and all officers in it.

Responsibilities and Commitments include

- Recruiting the finest minds (including neurodivergent) with the highest ethics from the designated domain to assist in this task of restoring relations with the Kingdom
- Promoting positive global relationships
- Supporting the best practices and programs through international individuals with deep experience and understanding of the actions needed for successful implementation
- Clear, concise and consistent communication throughout all processes to ensure alignment with the King and his desires for and responsibilities to his People
- Firm, solid commitment and loyalty to the King which is demonstrated in everyday actions

This Royal Appointment is completed this 5th day of July, 2024 on the sacred and original ancient site of the First Capital Kamakahonu, where the first king, King Kamehameha the Great governed.
