

THE KINGDOM OF HAWAI'I

August 11, 2023

From the desk of the King

AT THIS CRITICAL TIME OF THE FIRES IN OUR NATION

Aloha Lahui,

There is much to say, yet, silence sometimes is best. In the silence, we see our ancestors and those living in grief and desperation seeking answers to this disaster's root cause. There are many speculations thrown about as to what is assumed. We cannot rely upon this as true and accurate. What is true is that together, we will find it, to never again witness and experience this in any lifetime. If it is simply an accident, so be it, and we accept it. If not, I will bring to full force the Kingdom's Law Enforcement Officers to bring those perpetrators to stand before the People's International Indigenous Criminal Court (IICC) and the International Indigenous Court of Justice (IICJ) to stand trial for their crimes against humanity. Regardless of who they are, their titles, and whether they are rich or poor, it doesn't matter. True justice will be served.

Today is a day of mourning for those whose lives were taken by this tragedy. May their souls rest in peace. For those relatives who have lost loved ones, remember and know you were loved and blessed to have had them in your life. May your life be enriched by every memory because there is no good or bad; it simply is what you want it to be. Let your heart be whole and enriched with absolute forgiveness, compassion, and love.
