The Prayer for Ali'i Nui Mo'i
Dr. Edmund K. Paki - Silva, II.
Kahu Ahu'ena Heiau, Kamakahonu, Hawai'i

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, Thou Who didst still the raging of the seas and set bounds unto the waves, look down now upon Thine anointed servant, the King who rules the islands, Thy knight of peace upon the waters of the earth. Crown him, O Lord, not only with the diadem of gold but with the imperishable crown of righteousness. Strengthen his hand with the scepter of justice, that he may rule not as a tyrant over flesh, but as a shepherd over souls entrusted to his care.

Grant unto him the heart of David, who ruled with mercy; the wisdom of Solomon, who judged with truth; and the faith of Saint Cyprian, who bore witness to Thee even unto the sword. May he be, O Lord, a ruler both gentle and steadfast, holding his authority not as his own, but as a sacred stewardship from Thy divine throne.

By the prayers of Saint Cyprian of Carthage, holy bishop and martyr, grant that this King may discern the snares of heresy, resist the counsel of the proud, and guard the purity of the faith against all the storms of the age. Let him, like Cyprian, know the unity of the Church as the unity of love, that the realm over which he reigns may mirror the harmony of the heavenly kingdom.

Let the Hawai'ian islands under his dominion be sanctified as the pearls of the Lord's crown. each shore a reflection of Thy light, each wave a hymn of praise unto Thee. Bless his people, O Christ our God, that they may live in peace, in godliness, and in charity, knowing that the King who rules them rules first under Thee.

Preserve him, O Lord, from the vanity of worldly power, from the whisper of deceit, from the poison of division. Surround him with counsellors who fear Thee, priests who serve Thee in truth, and warriors who fight under the banner of righteousness.

As Thou didst call Saint Cyprian to lead amidst persecution, to heal amidst plague, and to die with the confession of Thy holy name upon his lips, so may this King, Thy servant, live and reign in the image of that holy courage.

Let his rule be an altar, his throne a cross, his kingdom a vineyard tended by faith and watered by mercy. And when his days are fulfilled, and the evening bell of life tolls upon the horizon, receive him into Thy eternal dominion, where the saints rejoice, where Cyprian and all martyrs intercede, and where tears are no more.

Through the prayers of the All Holy Theotokos, of Saint Cyprian of Carthage, and of all the saints who have pleased Thee from the ages, preserve, O Lord, the King who rules the islands, grant him length of days, purity of heart, and salvation of soul. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages.

Amen.
